VERMONT SECRETARY OF STATE

Corporations Division

MAILING ADDRESS: Vermont Secretary of State, 128 State Street, Montpelier, VT 05633-1104

DELIVERY ADDRESS: Vermont Secretary of State, 128 State Street, Montpelier, VT 05633-1104

PHONE: 802-828-2386 WEBSITE: www.sec.state.vt.us

a. Name: Cameron Stoll  b. Acknowledgement Address: 65 Fairchild Street, Charleston, SC, 29492, USA  c. Email Address: cameron.stoll@blackbaud.com  d. Phone No: (843) 654-2379	1	A al
b. Acknowledgement Address: cameron.stoll@blackbaud.com  d. Phone No: (843) 654-2379  2. Data Broker Information. a. Name: Blackbaud, Inc. b. Primary Physical Address: casesupport@blackbaud.com d. Primary Email Address: casesupport@blackbaud.com d. Primary Email Address: casesupport@blackbaud.com d. Primary Internet Address (URL): blackbaud.com d. Primary Internet Address (URL)	1. Acknowledgement Information.  Cameron Stoll
c. Email Address: cameron.stoll@blackbaud.com  d. Phone No: (843) 654-2379  2. Data Broker Information. a. Name: Blackbaud, Inc. b. Primary Physical Address: 65 Fairchild Street, Charleston, SC, 29492, USA c. Primary Email Address: 65 Fairchild Street, Charleston, SC, 29492, USA c. Primary Email Address: 68 Fairchild Street, Charleston, SC, 29492, USA c. Primary Internet Address (URL): blackbaud.com  d. Primary Internet Address (URL): blackbaud.com  3. Does the data broker permit a consumer to opt out of the data broker's collection of brokered personal information, opt out of its databases or opt out of certain sales of data? Yes No  If so: a. What was the method for requesting an opt-out? The opt-out can be requested through any of the Blackbaud Customer Support channels (chat, email, phone).  b. If the opt-out applied to only certain activities or sales, which ones? A very small portion of Blackbaud's business allows our non-profit customers to utilize consumer data for the purpose of donor acquisition, which is called the Cooperative Database. Blackbaud can action opt-out requests only for the Cooperative Database. Our data enrichment services embedded into our Solutions are discussed below; consumers must opt out directly with the nonprofit to affect those services, not with us.  c. Does the data broker permit a consumer to authorize a third party to perform the opt-out on the consumer's behalf? The Cooperative Database suppresses consumers based upon DMA policies.  4. Statement specifying the data collection, databases or sales activities from which a consumer may not have opted out during the prior year:  We sell a variety of solutions to nonprofit customers with embedded data enrichment services. These data enrichment services allow our nonprofit customers to complete or enhance consumer records that they already have in their own databases. For example, if a nonprofit customers to complete or enhance consumer records that they already have in their own databases. For example, if a nonprofit customers t		_	CC E : 1710 CL . 1
d. Phone No: (843) 654-2379  2. Data Broker Information.  a. Name: Blackbaud, Inc.  b. Primary Physical Address: 65 Fairchild Street, Charleston, SC, 29492, USA  c. Primary Email Address: 65 Fairchild Street, Charleston, SC, 29492, USA  c. Primary Internet Address (URL): blackbaud.com  d. Primary Internet Address (URL): blackbaud.com  3. Does the data broker permit a consumer to opt out of the data broker's collection of brokered personal information, opt out of its databases or opt out of certain sales of data? Yes No  If so:  a. What was the method for requesting an opt-out?  The opt-out can be requested through any of the Blackbaud Customer Support channels (chat, email, phone).  b. If the opt-out applied to only certain activities or sales, which ones?  A very small portion of Blackbaud's business allows our non-profit customers to utilize consumer data for the purpose of donor acquisition, which is called the Cooperative Database. Blackbaud can action opt-out requests only for the Cooperative Database. Our data enrichment services embedded into our Solutions are discussed below; consumers must opt out directly with the nonprofit to affect those services, not with us.  c. Does the data broker permit a consumer to authorize a third party to perform the opt-out on the consumer's behalf?  The Cooperative Database suppresses consumers based upon DMA policies.  4. Statement specifying the data collection, databases or sales activities from which a consumer may not have opted out during the prior year:  We sell a variety of solutions to nonprofit customers with embedded data enrichment services. These data enrichment services allow our nonprofit customers to complete or enhance consumer records that they already have in their own databases, For example, if a nonprofit customer has a full name, they may choose to use an address-completing feature within the solution. Individuals appearing in our customer's databases need to opt out directly with the nonprofit customer.  5. Statement regarding whether the data bro			11011 11 1
2. Data Broker Information. a. Name: Blackbaud, Inc. b. Primary Physical Address: 65 Fairchild Street, Charleston, SC, 29492, USA c. Primary Email Address: Casesupport@blackbaud.com d. Primary Internet Address (URL): blackbaud.com 3. Does the data broker permit a consumer to opt out of the data broker's collection of brokered personal information, opt out of its databases or opt out of certain sales of data? Yes No  If so: a. What was the method for requesting an opt-out? The opt-out can be requested through any of the Blackbaud Customer Support channels (chat, email, phone).  b. If the opt-out applied to only certain activities or sales, which ones? A very small portion of Blackbaud's business allows our non-profit customers to utilize consumer data for the purpose of donor acquisition, which is called the Cooperative Database. Blackbaud can action opt-out requests only for the Cooperative Database. Our data enrichment services embedded into our Solutions are discussed below; consumers must opt out directly with the nonprofit to affect those services, not with us.  c. Does the data broker permit a consumer to authorize a third party to perform the opt-out on the consumer's behalf? The Cooperative Database suppresses consumers based upon DMA policies.  4. Statement specifying the data collection, databases or sales activities from which a consumer may not have opted out during the prior year: We sell a variety of solutions to nonprofit customers with embedded data enrichment services. These data enrichment services allow our nonprofit customers to complete or enhance consumer records that they already have in their own databases. For example, if a nonprofit customer has a full name, they may choose to use an address-completing feature within the solution. Individuals appearing in our customer's databases need to opt out directly with the nonprofit customer.  5. Statement regarding whether the data broker implemented a purchaser credentialing process during the prior year: All customers are vetted in accordance			(0.10) (7.1.1.0070)
a. Name: Blackbaud, Inc.  b. Primary Physical Address: 65 Fairchild Street, Charleston, SC, 29492, USA  c. Primary Email Address: Casesupport@blackbaud.com  d. Primary Internet Address (URL): blackbaud.com  3. Does the data broker permit a consumer to opt out of the data broker's collection of brokered personal information, opt out of its databases or opt out of certain sales of data? Yes No  If so:  a. What was the method for requesting an opt-out?  The opt-out applied to only certain activities or sales, which ones?  A very small portion of Blackbaud's business allows our non-profit customers to utilize consumer data for the purpose of donor acquisition, which is called the Cooperative Database. Blackbaud can action opt-out requests only for the Cooperative Database. Our data enrichment services embedded into our Solutions are discussed below; consumers must opt out directly with the nonprofit to affect those services, not with us.  c. Does the data broker permit a consumer to authorize a third party to perform the opt-out on the consumer's behalf? The Cooperative Database suppresses consumers based upon DMA policies.  4. Statement specifying the data collection, databases or sales activities from which a consumer may not have opted out during the prior year:  We sell a variety of solutions to nonprofit customers with embedded data enrichment services. These data enrichment services allow our nonprofit customers to complete or enhance consumer records that they already have in their own databases. For example, if a nonprofit customer has a full name, they may choose to use an address-completing feature within the solution. Individuals appearing in our customer's databases need to opt out directly with the nonprofit customer.  5. Statement regarding whether the data broker implemented a purchaser credentialing process during the prior year:  All customers are vetted in accordance with KYC standards and OFAC lists.	_
b. Primary Physical Address:casesupport@blackbaud.com d. Primary Internet Address (URL):blackbaud.com  3. Does the data broker permit a consumer to opt out of the data broker's collection of brokered personal information, opt out of its databases or opt out of certain sales of data?YesNoIf so: a. What was the method for requesting an opt-out?     The opt-out can be requested through any of the Blackbaud Customer Support channels (chat, email, phone).  b. If the opt-out applied to only certain activities or sales, which ones?     A very small portion of Blackbaud's business allows our non-profit customers to utilize consumer data for the purpose of donor acquisition, which is called the Cooperative Database. Blackbaud can action opt-out requests only for the Cooperative Database. Our data enrichment services embedded into our Solutions are discussed below; consumers must opt out directly with the nonprofit to affect those services, not with us.  c. Does the data broker permit a consumer to authorize a third party to perform the opt-out on the consumer's behalf? The Cooperative Database suppresses consumers based upon DMA policies.  4. Statement specifying the data collection, databases or sales activities from which a consumer may not have opted out during the prior year:  We sell a variety of solutions to nonprofit customers with embedded data enrichment services. These data enrichment services allow our nonprofit customers to complete or enhance consumer records that they already have in their own databases. For example, if a nonprofit customer has a full name, they may choose to use an address-completing feature within the solution. Individuals appearing in our customer's databases need to opt out directly with the nonprofit customer.  5. Statement regarding whether the data broker implemented a purchaser credentialing process during the prior year:  All customers are vetted in accordance with KYC standards and OFAC lists.
c. Primary Email Address:
d. Primary Internet Address (URL): blackbaud.com  3. Does the data broker permit a consumer to opt out of the data broker's collection of brokered personal information, opt out of its databases or opt out of certain sales of data? ∀Yes No If so:  a. What was the method for requesting an opt-out?  The opt-out can be requested through any of the Blackbaud Customer Support channels (chat, email, phone).  b. If the opt-out applied to only certain activities or sales, which ones?  A very small portion of Blackbaud's business allows our non-profit customers to utilize consumer data for the purpose of donor acquisition, which is called the Cooperative Database. Blackbaud can action opt-out requests only for the Cooperative Database. Our data enrichment services embedded into our Solutions are discussed below; consumers must opt out directly with the nonprofit to affect those services, not with us.  c. Does the data broker permit a consumer to authorize a third party to perform the opt-out on the consumer's behalf? The Cooperative Database suppresses consumers based upon DMA policies.  4. Statement specifying the data collection, databases or sales activities from which a consumer may not have opted out during the prior year:  We sell a variety of solutions to nonprofit customers with embedded data enrichment services. These data enrichment services allow our nonprofit customers to complete or enhance consumer records that they already have in their own databases. For example, if a nonprofit customer has a full name, they may choose to use an address-completing feature within the solution. Individuals appearing in our customer's databases need to opt out directly with the nonprofit customer.  5. Statement regarding whether the data broker implemented a purchaser credentialing process during the prior year:  All customers are vetted in accordance with KYC standards and OFAC lists.		b.
<ul> <li>3. Does the data broker permit a consumer to opt out of the data broker's collection of brokered personal information, opt out of its databases or opt out of certain sales of data?  Yes  No  If so: <ul> <li>a. What was the method for requesting an opt-out?</li> <li>The opt-out can be requested through any of the Blackbaud Customer Support channels (chat, email, phone).</li> </ul> </li> <li>b. If the opt-out applied to only certain activities or sales, which ones? <ul> <li>A very small portion of Blackbaud's business allows our non-profit customers to utilize consumer data for the purpose of donor acquisition, which is called the Cooperative Database. Blackbaud can action opt-out requests only for the Cooperative Database. Our data enrichment services embedded into our Solutions are discussed below; consumers must opt out directly with the nonprofit to affect those services, not with us.</li> <li>c. Does the data broker permit a consumer to authorize a third party to perform the opt-out on the consumer's behalf? The Cooperative Database suppresses consumers based upon DMA policies.</li> </ul> </li> <li>4. Statement specifying the data collection, databases or sales activities from which a consumer may not have opted out during the prior year: <ul> <li>We sell a variety of solutions to nonprofit customers with embedded data enrichment services. These data enrichment services allow our nonprofit customer so complete or enhance consumer records that they already have in their own databases. For example, if a nonprofit customer has a full name, they may choose to use an address-completing feature within the solution. Individuals appearing in our customer's databases need to opt out directly with the nonprofit customer.</li> <li>5. Statement regarding whether the data broker implemented a purchaser credentialing process during the prior year: <ul> <li>All customers are vetted in accordance with KYC standards and OFAC lists.</li> </ul> </li> <li>6. The number of security breaches that the data broker experie</li></ul></li></ul>		C. Timury Email Morress.
opt out of its databases or opt out of certain sales of data? Yes No  If so:  a. What was the method for requesting an opt-out?  The opt-out can be requested through any of the Blackbaud Customer Support channels (chat, email, phone).  b. If the opt-out applied to only certain activities or sales, which ones?  A very small portion of Blackbaud's business allows our non-profit customers to utilize consumer data for the purpose of donor acquisition, which is called the Cooperative Database. Blackbaud can action opt-out requests only for the Cooperative Database. Our data enrichment services embedded into our Solutions are discussed below; consumers must opt out directly with the nonprofit to affect those services, not with us.  c. Does the data broker permit a consumer to authorize a third party to perform the opt-out on the consumer's behalf?  The Cooperative Database suppresses consumers based upon DMA policies.  4. Statement specifying the data collection, databases or sales activities from which a consumer may not have opted out during the prior year:  We sell a variety of solutions to nonprofit customers with embedded data enrichment services. These data enrichment services allow our nonprofit customers to complete or enhance consumer records that they already have in their own databases. For example, if a nonprofit customer has a full name, they may choose to use an address-completing feature within the solution. Individuals appearing in our customer's databases need to opt out directly with the nonprofit customer.  5. Statement regarding whether the data broker implemented a purchaser credentialing process during the prior year:  All customers are vetted in accordance with KYC standards and OFAC lists.		d.	Primary Internet Address (URL):  Diackbaud.com
<ul> <li>a. What was the method for requesting an opt-out?  The opt-out can be requested through any of the Blackbaud Customer Support channels (chat, email, phone).</li> <li>b. If the opt-out applied to only certain activities or sales, which ones?  A very small portion of Blackbaud's business allows our non-profit customers to utilize consumer data for the purpose of donor acquisition, which is called the Cooperative Database. Blackbaud can action opt-out requests only for the Cooperative Database. Our data enrichment services embedded into our Solutions are discussed below; consumers must opt out directly with the nonprofit to affect those services, not with us.</li> <li>c. Does the data broker permit a consumer to authorize a third party to perform the opt-out on the consumer's behalf?  The Cooperative Database suppresses consumers based upon DMA policies.</li> <li>4. Statement specifying the data collection, databases or sales activities from which a consumer may not have opted out during the prior year:  We sell a variety of solutions to nonprofit customers with embedded data enrichment services. These data enrichment services allow our nonprofit customers to complete or enhance consumer records that they already have in their own databases. For example, if a nonprofit customer has a full name, they may choose to use an address-completing feature within the solution. Individuals appearing in our customer's databases need to opt out directly with the nonprofit customer.</li> <li>5. Statement regarding whether the data broker implemented a purchaser credentialing process during the prior year:  All customers are vetted in accordance with KYC standards and OFAC lists.</li> <li>6. The number of security breaches that the data broker experienced during the prior year:  O</li> </ul>	3.
<ul> <li>The opt-out can be requested through any of the Blackbaud Customer Support channels (chat, email, phone).</li> <li>If the opt-out applied to only certain activities or sales, which ones?  A very small portion of Blackbaud's business allows our non-profit customers to utilize consumer data for the purpose of donor acquisition, which is called the Cooperative Database. Blackbaud can action opt-out requests only for the Cooperative Database. Our data enrichment services embedded into our Solutions are discussed below; consumers must opt out directly with the nonprofit to affect those services, not with us.</li> <li>c. Does the data broker permit a consumer to authorize a third party to perform the opt-out on the consumer's behalf? The Cooperative Database suppresses consumers based upon DMA policies.</li> <li>4. Statement specifying the data collection, databases or sales activities from which a consumer may not have opted out during the prior year:  We sell a variety of solutions to nonprofit customers with embedded data enrichment services. These data enrichment services allow our nonprofit customers to complete or enhance consumer records that they already have in their own databases. For example, if a nonprofit customer has a full name, they may choose to use an address-completing feature within the solution. Individuals appearing in our customer's databases need to opt out directly with the nonprofit customer.</li> <li>5. Statement regarding whether the data broker implemented a purchaser credentialing process during the prior year:  All customers are vetted in accordance with KYC standards and OFAC lists.</li> <li>6. The number of security breaches that the data broker experienced during the prior year:  O</li> </ul>		If so:
<ul> <li>b. If the opt-out applied to only certain activities or sales, which ones?  A very small portion of Blackbaud's business allows our non-profit customers to utilize consumer data for the purpose of donor acquisition, which is called the Cooperative Database. Blackbaud can action opt-out requests only for the Cooperative Database. Our data enrichment services embedded into our Solutions are discussed below; consumers must opt out directly with the nonprofit to affect those services, not with us.</li> <li>c. Does the data broker permit a consumer to authorize a third party to perform the opt-out on the consumer's behalf? The Cooperative Database suppresses consumers based upon DMA policies.</li> <li>4. Statement specifying the data collection, databases or sales activities from which a consumer may not have opted out during the prior year:  We sell a variety of solutions to nonprofit customers with embedded data enrichment services. These data enrichment services allow our nonprofit customers to complete or enhance consumer records that they already have in their own databases. For example, if a nonprofit customer has a full name, they may choose to use an address-completing feature within the solution. Individuals appearing in our customer's databases need to opt out directly with the nonprofit customer.</li> <li>5. Statement regarding whether the data broker implemented a purchaser credentialing process during the prior year:  All customers are vetted in accordance with KYC standards and OFAC lists.</li> <li>6. The number of security breaches that the data broker experienced during the prior year:</li> </ul>		a. What was the method for requesting an opt-out?
A very small portion of Blackbaud's business allows our non-profit customers to utilize consumer data for the purpose of donor acquisition, which is called the Cooperative Database. Blackbaud can action opt-out requests only for the Cooperative Database. Our data enrichment services embedded into our Solutions are discussed below; consumers must opt out directly with the nonprofit to affect those services, not with us.  c. Does the data broker permit a consumer to authorize a third party to perform the opt-out on the consumer's behalf? The Cooperative Database suppresses consumers based upon DMA policies.  4. Statement specifying the data collection, databases or sales activities from which a consumer may not have opted out during the prior year:  We sell a variety of solutions to nonprofit customers with embedded data enrichment services. These data enrichment services allow our nonprofit customers to complete or enhance consumer records that they already have in their own databases. For example, if a nonprofit customer has a full name, they may choose to use an address-completing feature within the solution. Individuals appearing in our customer's databases need to opt out directly with the nonprofit customer.  5. Statement regarding whether the data broker implemented a purchaser credentialing process during the prior year:  All customers are vetted in accordance with KYC standards and OFAC lists.			The opt-out can be requested through any of the Blackbaud Customer Support channels (chat, email, phone).
acquisition, which is called the Cooperative Database. Blackbaud can action opt-out requests only for the Cooperative Database. Our data enrichment services embedded into our Solutions are discussed below; consumers must opt out directly with the nonprofit to affect those services, not with us.  c. Does the data broker permit a consumer to authorize a third party to perform the opt-out on the consumer's behalf? The Cooperative Database suppresses consumers based upon DMA policies.  4. Statement specifying the data collection, databases or sales activities from which a consumer may not have opted out during the prior year:  We sell a variety of solutions to nonprofit customers with embedded data enrichment services. These data enrichment services allow our nonprofit customers to complete or enhance consumer records that they already have in their own databases. For example, if a nonprofit customer has a full name, they may choose to use an address-completing feature within the solution. Individuals appearing in our customer's databases need to opt out directly with the nonprofit customer.  5. Statement regarding whether the data broker implemented a purchaser credentialing process during the prior year:  All customers are vetted in accordance with KYC standards and OFAC lists.		b.	If the opt-out applied to only certain activities or sales, which ones?
The Cooperative Database suppresses consumers based upon DMA policies.  4. Statement specifying the data collection, databases or sales activities from which a consumer may not have opted out during the prior year:  We sell a variety of solutions to nonprofit customers with embedded data enrichment services. These data enrichment services allow our nonprofit customers to complete or enhance consumer records that they already have in their own databases. For example, if a nonprofit customer has a full name, they may choose to use an address-completing feature within the solution. Individuals appearing in our customer's databases need to opt out directly with the nonprofit customer.  5. Statement regarding whether the data broker implemented a purchaser credentialing process during the prior year:  All customers are vetted in accordance with KYC standards and OFAC lists.			acquisition, which is called the Cooperative Database. Blackbaud can action opt-out requests only for the Cooperative Database. Our data enrichment services embedded into our Solutions are discussed below; consumers must opt out directly with <ul> <li>4. Statement specifying the data collection, databases or sales activities from which a consumer may not have opted out during the prior year:  We sell a variety of solutions to nonprofit customers with embedded data enrichment services. These data enrichment services allow our nonprofit customers to complete or enhance consumer records that they already have in their own databases. For example, if a nonprofit customer has a full name, they may choose to use an address-completing feature within the solution. Individuals appearing in our customer's databases need to opt out directly with the nonprofit customer.</li> <li>5. Statement regarding whether the data broker implemented a purchaser credentialing process during the prior year:  All customers are vetted in accordance with KYC standards and OFAC lists.</li> <li>6. The number of security breaches that the data broker experienced during the prior year:</li> </ul>		c.	Does the data broker permit a consumer to authorize a third party to perform the opt-out on the consumer's behalf?
during the prior year:  We sell a variety of solutions to nonprofit customers with embedded data enrichment services. These data enrichment services allow our nonprofit customers to complete or enhance consumer records that they already have in their own databases. For example, if a nonprofit customer has a full name, they may choose to use an address-completing feature within the solution. Individuals appearing in our customer's databases need to opt out directly with the nonprofit customer.  5. Statement regarding whether the data broker implemented a purchaser credentialing process during the prior year:  All customers are vetted in accordance with KYC standards and OFAC lists.			The Cooperative Database suppresses consumers based upon DMA policies.
our nonprofit customers to complete or enhance consumer records that they already have in their own databases. For example, if a nonprofit customer has a full name, they may choose to use an address-completing feature within the solution. Individuals appearing in our customer's databases need to opt out directly with the nonprofit customer.  5. Statement regarding whether the data broker implemented a purchaser credentialing process during the prior year:  All customers are vetted in accordance with KYC standards and OFAC lists.	4.
All customers are vetted in accordance with KYC standards and OFAC lists.  6. The number of security breaches that the data broker experienced during the prior year:		our n	conprofit customers to complete or enhance consumer records that they already have in their own databases. For example, if a rofit customer has a full name, they may choose to use an address-completing feature within the solution. Individuals appearing in
6. The number of security breaches that the data broker experienced during the prior year:	5.	State	Statement regarding whether the data broker implemented a purchaser credentialing process during the prior year:
		All c	sustomers are vetted in accordance with KYC standards and OFAC lists.
	6.	The	number of security breaches that the data broker experienced during the prior year: 0
			Total number of consumers affected by the breaches: $0$

NIBRONIO C. FREEDOM S

VERMONT SECRETARY OF STATE

Corporations Division

MAILING ADDRESS: Vermont Secretary of State, 128 State Street, Montpelier, VT 05633-1104 DELIVERY ADDRESS: Vermont Secretary of State, 128 State Street, Montpelier, VT 05633-1104

PHONE: 802-828-2386 WEBSITE: www.sec.state.vt.us

7.	Where the data broker has actual knowledge that it possesses the brokered personal information of minors, provide a statement detailing the data collection practices, databases, sales activities, and opt-out policies that are applicable to the brokered personal information of minors:

The Cooperative Database does not include minors.

8.	Any additional information or explanation the data broker chooses to provide concerning its data collection practices
	during the prior year:

None.

9. Certification of Annual Registration.

I hereby certify, under penalty of law (13 V.S.A. Ch. 65), as an authorized representative of the data broker, that the all of the above information is accurate.

Cameron S Stoll	Cameron S Stoll	01/31/2019
PRINTED NAME	SIGNATURE	DATE